IQPA Announces State Leaders and Percentages

IQPA is keeping count of your ponies. They have recently announced some statistics that are interesting.

The top five states for IQPA registered ponies are: Washington (with 23.3% of all registered ponies), Tennessee (12.8%), Kansas (10.1%), Texas (8.7%) and California (8.3%). Other states that have registered ponies are: Alabama, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Utah, Vermont and Wisconsin. There are also registered ponies in British Columbia and Ontario, Canada as well as Germany and Sweden.

Numbers that were also announced were the percentages of solid, pinto and appaloosa characteristics with the predominance of ponies being solid. Solid ponies account for 72% of all registrations, pinto for 21% and appaloosa ponies make up 7% of the IQPA registries.

Texas has almost doubled their numbers this year! Is YOUR state represented here? Are YOUR ponies part of these numbers? Get your ponies registered now and be a part of the QPA movement!

IQPA Registration Special

Members who have a foal born to one registered IQPA parent can now register that foal for only $15. Hurry to get in on this special!

IQPA will periodically run specials on registration. Be sure to check the website www.iqpa.com to see what special is going on at any time!

Do You Have Show Information to Announce?

We will be glad to run your show results on this page as space permits. These results were posted by Laurie Whitling from Pennsylvania.

QPA 2007 Calendar

The Marketing committee is working on ideas for a 2007 QPA calendar featuring the best photos we can get of YOUR ponies. Check out the newsletter next month to get the lowdown on how you can present photos to be in the calendar. Start now taking the absolute best pictures you can of your four-legged friends and their people! These will make great gifts!
